ABOUT US

The Creative Opera Company (501(c)3) is a non-profit "Mobile Opera" Company founded on 1969 by Frances Eberman/Ellen Chandler. Its primary purpose is to bring opera to the public and the public to opera.

The company has performed in schools, hospitals, senior centers and the Provincetown Theater in Greenwich Village, and all over the Tri-State area, Florida and Canada.

Two main ongoing projects are Entertainment for Seniors and Entertainment for Students. The programs are multilingual performances and include opera arias, musical comedy and ethnic music.

The performers are multi generational compassionate singers, actors and musicians.

Programs are free and we also sponsor fundraising programs for other organizations/foundations.

Some of Our Honorary Members Include:

Gale Brewer
Helen Rosenthal
Linda Rosenthal
Barbara Conrad

Sextet: Così fan tutte - Mozart

Volunteers are Welcome!

ELLEN CHANDLER, Soprano

Winner of the International Beaux Awards for Best Dramatic Wagnerian Soprano and the Magda Dahl-Frank Colasanto Scholarship Award.

Ms. Chandler has a varied career throughout the world, La Follia Magazine in their review stated that "She was the consummate Singing Actress with the Golden Voice".

She performs major opera roles from Verdi, Wagner, and Puccini.

At present she is deeply involved in her two major projects, one of which is bringing music into the New York City school system. The other for seniors is ongoing and successful.
